Preface

THE Church of St Mary, Prestwich, is situate about four and a half miles north-west of Manchester Exchange and slightly to the west of the high road from Manchester to Bury; its parish is bounded on the south by that of the ancient parish of Manchester. The Church certainly existed as early as the year 1202, as a Final Concord of the 4th November of that year speaks of "Ranulph the Parson" [see "Lancashire Fines," edited by William Farrer, D.Litt., Lancashire and Cheshire Record Society, vol. 39, p. 20] whom collateral evidence tends to establish as the Parson of Prestwich.

The Registers here printed are three in number. Volume I is a parchment volume of 55 leaves, each measuring 13½ inches by 6 inches. Volume II—parchment—of 39 leaves, each measuring 12 inches by 5½ inches; Volume III—parchment—of 69 leaves, each measuring 14 inches by 4½ inches.

A paper volume was also submitted to the Editor purporting to be a condensed copy of the three Registers mentioned, but it does not advance one's information.

In Volumes II and III the Baptisms, Burials and Weddings are entered in separate parts of the book, but in Volume I the three denominations are entered indiscriminately. Great care however has been taken in separating them that not a single entry should be omitted. As a consequence of this mingling of Baptisms, Burials and Weddings the word "praedictus" (or its abbreviations) may often compel the reader to refer to another part of the printed volume to learn other particulars of the person spoken of as "aforesaid."

Volume I presented some difficulty in transcription and several corners of the leaves have disappeared, but Volumes II and III are most clearly written, the last named volume being evidently the work of the scribe who entered up the Middleton Registers of the same date.

The thanks of the Society are due to the Rector of Prestwich (and to his courteous Parish Clerk) for the facilities which they have extended, and without the generosity of Sir Lees Knowles these Registers might long have remained a sealed book.

Christian Names and Surnames.

Baptisms	pp.	1—83	inclusive.
Burials	„	84—161	„
Weddings	„	162—197	„

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form—the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father.

"N.X.N." signifies "No Christian Name."

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian and Surname occurs more than once on the page number asterisked.
